- during the period of cooperation with the Disclosing Party, as well as within 3 years from the date of termination of such cooperation, without written consent of the Disclosing Party, not to disclose to third parties the personal data of the Disclosing Party's clients, as well as the personal data of its customers' clients and its employees or contractors;
- not directly or indirectly (through representatives or third parties, orally, in writing, etc.) not to take actions aimed at employment of any persons, or cooperation of such persons under civil law agreements with clients / customers of the Disclosing Party; not to work with the clients / customers of the Disclosing Party, independently and / or not to persuade the customers / customers of the Disclosing Party to cooperate with any persons and / or employees or contractors of the Disclosing Party until the termination of relations with the Party, disclosing or employing or concluding civil law agreements with any person who has become known as a result of receiving confidential information under this Agreement;

4. Remedies

Acknowledgment of Irreparable Harm. The parties acknowledge that a breach or threatened breach of the obligations in this agreement would result in irreparable harm to the non-breaching party that cannot be adequately relieved solely by monetary damages.

Intent to Allow for Equitable Remedies. Accordingly, the parties intend, and hereby agree that after such breach, the non-breaching party may request from a court any applicable equitable remedies, including injunctive relief, without the need to post any security.

5. General Provisions

Entire Agreement. This agreement represents the entire understanding between the parties with respect to its subject and supersedes any previous communication or agreements that may exist.

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Amendment. This agreement can be amended only by a writing signed by both parties.

Notices. The parties shall give all notices and communications between the parties in writing by (i) personal delivery, (ii) a nationally-recognized, next-day courier service, (iii) first-class registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, (v) electronic mail to the party's address specified in this agreement, or to the address that a party has notified to be that party's address for the purposes of this section.

Receipt of Notice. A notice given under this agreement will be effective on

- the other party's receipt of it, or
- if mailed, the earlier of the other party's receipt of it and the fifth business day after mailing it.

Governing Law. This agreement shall be governed, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of Estonia and the European Union.

Waiver. The failure or neglect by a party to enforce any of the rights under this agreement will not be deemed to be a waiver of that party's rights.

Severability. If any part of this agreement is declared unenforceable or invalid, the remainder will continue to be valid and enforceable.

The parties agree that this amount represents a reasonable estimate of the damages likely to be incurred by the Disclosing Party due to such breach, and is not intended as a penalty.

This provision shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

This agreement has been signed by the parties.
